

Labour market newsletter

Volume 214– October 27, 2016

Subscribe | to the AWiC Newsletter every Thursday to receive it directly.

Algoma News

Downtown: What's the next move?

10/27/16

Sault Online

Over 1,300 people took the time to fill out the Downtown Development Survey this past July says Victoria Prouse, Project Coordinator, of the Downtown Development Initiative.

Employer survey across Algoma to provide further insight into the local labour market

10/26/16

Sault Online

The Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation (AWiC) is calling on employers across Algoma to complete the employer one survey to help better understand the local workforce issues and challenges facing local businesses.

Local college gets new name

10/26/16

Asimco College undergoes rebranding, changes name to Gates College of Business, Culinary & Healthcare.

Sault tech entrepreneur seeks backing for literacy app

10/25/16

Northern Ontario Business

This November, Sault Ste. Marie resident Melissa Kargiannakis will be one of nine women entrepreneurs attending a startup accelerator program in Silicon Valley, Calif.

Capital budget talks postponed

10/25/16

Sault Star

City council postponed approving its capital budget until Dec. 5.

Riverwalk Condominiums a much bigger project than thought but it's almost ready!

10/24/16

Sault Online

Amit Sofer President of the TVM Group and developer of the Riverwalk Condominiums admits, the project has taken a lot longer than originally anticipated.

College makes worldwide pitch

10/23/16

Sault Star

Sault College wants to double its international enrolment within three to five years. Sault College wants to gradually ramp up its international enrolment to ensure support services, such as English as a Second Language, are in place to help students who are studying many miles from home in a different culture.

New Campaign Launches: WE ARE THE SOO!

10/21/16

Sault Online

The Sault Ste. Marie Chamber of Commerce (SSMCOC) launched a new campaign on Friday morning aimed at focusing on the many positive aspects of living and doing business in Sault Ste. Marie.

Sault won't introduce development fees on new builds

10/21/16

Northern Ontario Business

City council has decided not to introduce development fees on new builds in Sault Ste. Marie.

Trade committee to study steel dumping

10/21/16

Soo Today

OTTAWA – The Standing Committee on International Trade will study unfair trade practices impacting Canada's steel industry thanks to a motion introduced by NDP trade critic, Tracey Ramsey (Essex).

Canadian News

Women won't earn as much as men for 170 years: report

10/26/16

CTV News

GENEVA -- The global gap in earnings between men and women will not be closed for another 170 years if current trends continue, according to a new report from the World Economic Forum.

Driverless Truck Launched As Job 'Catastrophe' Said To Be 4 Years Off

10/25/16

Huffington Post Canada

A self-driving truck developed by an Uber subsidiary has gone on a 193-kilometre (120-mile) beer run for Budweiser, in the latest sign yet that self-driving technology is just around the corner.

Trudeau heckled, booed at youth labour forum in Ottawa

10/25/16

Toronto Star

Dozens of delegates at a youth labour forum turned their backs Tuesday on Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, using body language to express their frustrations with everything from global warming to so-called precarious work.

Want A Skilled Workforce? You Need Skilled Collaboration

10/25/16

Huffington Post Canada

Youth unemployment in Canada remains stubbornly high. Maybe it's your son or daughter; your neighbour, your niece, your cousin, your friend. They are bright, well-spoken and well-educated -- but all that time and money invested in their education just doesn't seem to lead to a decent job.

Young Canadians should get used to precarious employment: Finance Minister

10/24/16

Hamilton Spectator

Finance Minister Bill Morneau commented Saturday at a Liberal Party meeting that Canadians focus on preparing for "job churn"

University graduates juggle jobs of varying certainty

10/24/16

Globe and Mail

As the reality of working increasingly becomes a mash-up of contracts, self-employment, part-time gigs and career shifts, how can universities help grads adjust to a constantly changing labour landscape?

Precision Drilling Hires 1,000 In Oilpatch

10/24/16

Huffington Post Canada

Don't call it a comeback, exactly, but maybe think of it as a bright spot on an otherwise dim Alberta jobs front.

Small businesses outpace large organizations in payroll growth

10/20/16

Globe and Mail

While small businesses may not be leapfrogging their larger counterparts in every aspect, there are a few standout findings that might be a bit of a surprise.

Indigenous people find employment in Ontario's Ring of Fire

10/20/16

CBC News

The one company in the Ring of Fire still doing active exploration said it has already made a positive impact on neighbouring Indigenous communities.

Federal panel set up to explore mysteries of youth employment

10/18/16

HR Reporter

Canada could soon find itself facing unexpected economic and social fallout without a clearer picture of where and how young people are failing in the labour market, says the chairwoman of a new federal panel on youth unemployment.

Copyright © 2013 Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this weekly mailing because you were interested in weekly news updates regarding labour market information posted in the news.

Our mailing address is:

Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation
672 Queen Street East
Sault Ste. Marie ON P6A 2A4