

Health Transformation Project Manager

(6 month contract with potential extension to 2 years)

(Job #2019.005)

About the Organization:

Maamwesying North Shore Community Health Services is an accredited, not for profit community based health service provider. As one of ten Aboriginal Health Access Centres in Ontario, N'Mninoeyaa is a comprehensive and progressive health care organization committed to providing high quality health care and wellness services to the seven member First Nations of the North Shore Tribal Council, situated along the north shore of Lake Huron - Highway 17 corridor, between Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie. As well, Maamwesying North Shore Community Health Services, oversees Baawaating Family Health Team located near Sault Ste. Marie and an Indigenous Interprofessional Primary Health Care Team for four First Nations in Wawa and Chapleau. Please visit our website at maamwesying.ca for a full listing of our services.

About the Opportunity:

As the Health Transformation Project Manager, you will be focused on transforming processes and working with the Health Transformation Committee in optimizing the existing health services. You will be required to conduct research on the various Indigenous governance models of health that exists to evaluate their effectiveness and develop an effective community consultation and engagement strategy to ensure the health and wellness needs are identified. Under the direction of the Health Transformation Committee, the Health Transformation Project Manager will execute, supervise and implement the Committee's work plan.

Qualifications:

- Required, Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Indigenous Studies, Public Administration, Political Science, Community Development and Planning or equivalent diploma in related field
- Demonstrated experience in project management and community development experience
- Experience in asset mapping, statistical data collection and conducting environmental scans
- Minimum three years' research experience involving First Nation programs, health and social services considered an asset
- Good knowledge of First Nation federal and provincial health funding arrangements and services
- Strong group facilitation, public speaking and communication skills
- Must possess a valid Ontario Driver's Licence and a reliable vehicle, along with a driver's abstract
