

Labour market newsletter

Volume 219– December 1, 2016

Subscribe | to the AWiC Newsletter every Thursday to receive it directly.

Algoma News

Turners Elliot Lake opens Monday

11/30/16

Elliot Lake Standard

After months of eager anticipation, Turners Elliot Lake will open in the Pearson Plaza on Monday at 9 a.m.

New school to be named after boreal forest

11/30/16

Soo Today

It's not Alexander Henry anymore, nor is it merely ADSB's new Northern Avenue JK-8 school

Business achievement award nominations open

11/29/16

Sault Star

The awards recognize businesses that have made significant strides in overall growth and success, safety, diversification, employee relations, customer service and marketing.

Local youth access nearly $100,000 to kick-start start their businesses

11/28/16

Sault Online

YouLaunch, the Sault Ste. Marie Innovation Centre's (SSMIC) youth entrepreneurship program, is celebrating a wildly successful freshman year.

Program offers taste of college experience

11/27/16

Sault Star

There was a time Sault College "didn't have a lot of connection" with Algoma District School Board and Huron-Superior Catholic District School Board.

Perks would be seen in long term

11/27/16

Sault Star

SAULT STE. MARIE - It makes sense that growth in the industrial and commercial tax sectors is needed to help lessen the burden on all taxpayers.

Kids turned off by high school have chance to make it to college

11/26/16

Soo Today

Dual Credit Program allows 'disengaged' high school students to experience college; many go on to enrol at postsecondary level

Searchmont hopes for a better season as search for buyer continues

11/25/16

Soo Today

The association that operates the hill will go to council next month to ask for a renewal of a $100,000 loan guarantee

Canadian News

Federal minister calls for redesign of EI program

12/01/16

CTV News

The federal minister in charge of the employment insurance system says the program needs a serious redesign in the next few years to meet changing economic and social conditions.

Canadian economy rebounds with fastest growth in two years

11/30/16

Globe and Mail

Canada posted its strongest economic growth in more than two years in the third quarter, as a rebound in exports helped the economy bounce back strongly from its second-quarter slump.

Canada loses 80,000 working days a year due to sleep deprivation

11/30/16

The Star

'Why Sleep Matters' study quantifies economic loss resulting from lack of sleep in five different countries.

Jobs for teenagers might be subject to new restrictions

11/30/16

Globe and Mail

Bill Allen is a more than a little worried the New Brunswick government is considering making some major changes to its Employment Standards Act that could put new restrictions on the amount of time teens can work and how young they can be to work at all.

Canadian Inequality Widening As More Land In Low-Wage Work: CIBC

11/29/16

Huffington Post

Canada hasn't yet turned into a nation of "hamburger flippers," but a new study from CIBC Economics says the country has seen "a slow but steady deterioration" in job quality over the past two decades that is widening the income gap.

Canadore opens new motive power shop

11/29/16

Northern Ontario Business

16,000-square-feet to mix, mingle, collaborate

North Bay College opens entrepreneurship hub

11/29/16

Northern Ontario Business

The new centre will provide resources to assist existing and start-up businesses.

6 Canadian Cities with Booming Job Markets

11/28/16

Huffington Post Canada

According to a recent employee survey, less than half of Canadians would consider relocating for a job. What does this mean? Canadians don't like to stray far from home evidently.

Alberta job numbers point to 'small' upturn but province still on pace for large deficit

11/28/16

Financial Post

CALGARY – Despite improving employment numbers in an economy that is expected to begin growing again, Alberta's government is bracing for a $10.8 billion deficit this year.

Automation Will Cost Canada Up To 7.5 Million Jobs: Report

11/28/16

Huffington Post Canada

Canada should consider radical changes to its social safety net as the country faces the loss of up to 7.5 million jobs to automation in the next 10 to 15 years, says a new study from a think tank at the University of Toronto.

Farming industry facing huge labour shortage, new study finds

11/22/16

CBC News

For years, young people have been leaving the family farm behind for the bright lights of the big city — and a new study says this out-migration is having serious ramifications for farmers across Canada.

Copyright © 2013 Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this weekly mailing because you were interested in weekly news updates regarding labour market information posted in the news.

Our mailing address is:

Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation
672 Queen Street East
Sault Ste. Marie ON P6A 2A4