

Labour market newsletter

Volume 217– November 17, 2016

Subscribe | to the AWiC Newsletter every Thursday to receive it directly.

Algoma News

Sault 'can't be scared to fail'

11/17/16

Sault Star

Talking up Sault Ste. Marie's strengths, developing a skilled workforce and selling youth on the rewards of entrepreneurship are all potential tools to boost Sault Ste. Marie's economy.

Helping Small- and Medium-Sized Businesses Grow and Compete Globally

11/17/16

Algoma New Review

Ontario is introducing two new programs to support job creation and economic growth by helping small- and medium-sized businesses across the province compete globally and keep pace with rapid technological change.

Study North draws students to Sault

11/16/16

Sault Star

With fewer potential students to draw from Algoma District, Sault College is looking to southern Ontario and overseas to help its enrolment numbers.

School board director says 'it's time'

11/16/16

Soo Today

John Stadnyk, Huron-Superior Catholic District School Board director of education, will be retiring effective June 30, 2017.

Got a sustainable food business idea? These people can help with that

11/13/16

Soo Today

The Rural Agri-Innovation Network (RAIN) Launches Micro-Grant Program: Sustainable New Agri-Food Products & Productivity (SNAPP) Program

Let Phase 3 begin! (3 photos)

11/12/16

Soo Today

With the recent demolition of aging structures at the Canadian border crossing of the Sault Ste. Marie International Bridge, the multi-year project is now headed into its final phase.

Sault businesses represented at MINExpo 2016

11/15/16

Sault Online

To attract investment and generate opportunities for local businesses, the Sault Ste. Marie Economic Development Corporation (SSMEDC) represented the community last month at MINExpo International.

Hey Gr. 2 – 8 classes! We want your wacky, crazy funky business ideas!

11/14/16

Sault Online

Entrepreneurship awareness is starting at a young age in Sault Ste. Marie. Create a Logo and Market Your Thoughts are free in-school entrepreneurship workshops and contests targeting students in grades 2-6 and 7-8 across Northern Ontario.

75 Canadian business leaders gather in the Sault

11/12/16

Sault Online

This week, Sault Ste. Marie was home to Aboriginal Business Match (ABM) East 2016. Held at the Machine Shop, the business-matchmaking forum connected 75 Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal companies and decision makers from across the country.

Canadian News

Why Alberta still has the highest employment rate in the country, despite all the job losses

11/17/16

CBC News

Alberta has seen tens of thousands of layoffs in the past couple of years but its employment rate — a measure of working-age people who have jobs — remains the highest in the country.

Many Canadians want new career, but hesitant about furthering education

11/17/16

The Star

A survey found nearly half of those questioned plan to make a career change in the next five years but many feel they're not prepared.

Not bad, but not great either: Manufacturing sales rise slightly for fourth straight month

11/16/16

Financial Post

Canadian manufacturers continue to expanded their global sales, edging up by 0.3 per cent in September — the fourth consecutive monthly gain.

The flexibility to balance life and education

11/16/16

The Star

Pursing career goals and educational aspirations doesn't always mean sitting in a classroom. For students who choose Seneca College's online or correspondence options, it could mean learning from the comfort of their couch after the kids go to sleep, in a hammock on the beach or whenever they can fit it into their schedule.

What job churn?: Fear of economy keeping Canadians in low-paying jobs for longer

11/15/16

Financial Post

A leading economist is debunking talk of jobs being short-term and says Canadians are actually staying in their jobs longer, a fact even true among younger cohorts.

Cochrane constructing intermodal terminal for mining needs

11/15/16

Northern Ontario Business

A new intermodal transportation terminal is being constructed in the Town of Cochrane and is expected to serve the mining, forestry and agriculture industries.

Recruitment firm shifts gears on simulator training

11/14/16

Northern Ontario Business

Origin Operator Recruitment and Training have trained approximately 150 people since setting up shop six years ago, and now supply semi-skilled on-demand labour while acting as First Nation engagement specialists.

Changes to Express Entry will benefit applicants, including international students

11/14/16

The Canadian Immigrant

The changes to Express Entry, which will take effect on Nov. 19, aim to create a more fair and responsive immigration system that will address emerging needs and ensure long-term economic growth for the middle class.

Copyright © 2013 Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this weekly mailing because you were interested in weekly news updates regarding labour market information posted in the news.

Our mailing address is:

Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation
672 Queen Street East
Sault Ste. Marie ON P6A 2A4