

Labour market newsletter

Volume 218– November 24, 2016

Subscribe | to the AWiC Newsletter every Thursday to receive it directly.

Algoma News

Public Library Receives $100,000 For Renovations

11/23/16

Sault Online

On behalf of the Minister of Innovation, Science, and Economic Development, the Honourable Navdeep Bains, the Member of Parliament for Sault Ste. Marie, Terry Sheehan, announces $100,000 in funding for the rehabilitation of the Sault Ste. Marie Public Library.

Strapp receives industry award

11/23/16

Soo Today

The Economic Developers Association of Canada chose Bruce Strapp to receive the organization's annual President's Award

Mayors discuss FedNor in Ottawa

11/23/16

Sault Star

Mayor Christian Provenzano and his Northern Ontario counterparts say their meetings in Ottawa to advocate the importance of FedNor to their communities were well received.

Community panel tackles citizen morale and economic diversification

11/23/16

Sault Online

Last week at The Tech, a panel discussion featuring Mayor Christian Provenzano and other officials tackled a number of topics, including encouraging entrepreneurship, bolstering community morale and fostering economic diversification.

CTV cuts jobs at Northern Ontario Stations

11/23/16

Sault Online

Workers at Canada's largest private broadcaster were told this week that another round of cuts have been announced for 2017, including Sault Ste. Marie.

Airport continues record-setting trend

11/23/16

Sault Star

For six consecutive months, record-breaking numbers of passengers have travelled to and from the Sault Ste. Marie Airport.

Economy got you down? Maybe watching this panel discussion will cheer you up

11/24/16

Soo Today

Newcomers often recognize something we don't — this city is a fantastic place to live, says the mayor.

Local business rebuilds after devastating fire

11/23/16

Soo Today

A local business overcomes adversity to bounce back after a fire wiped out everything it had.

City considers more user fees to relieve industrial, commercial tax burdens

11/22/16

Soo Today

Starting early next year, city staff will be pushing hard to use new and jacked-up user fees to balance unfairly high tax ratios on business properties.

So, who will run Casino Sault Ste. Marie?

11/18/16

Soo Today

We'll soon find out who will be operating Casino Sault Ste. Marie and other northern Ontario gaming facilities under Ontario Lottery and Gaming's modernization plan.

Canadian News

Canadian employment rose in September but wage gains remain flat

11/24/16

Globe and Mail

Statistics Canada's monthly payroll survey showed much stronger hiring among the country's employers than previously believed, but average wages continue to stagnate.

Nearly half of homeowners unprepared for job loss or other emergency

11/24/16

Globe and Mail

An emergency fund is meant to be there in times of need, but a new survey suggests nearly half of Canadian homeowners would be ill prepared for a personal financial dilemma such as job loss.

Senate committee deepens Trudeau government's tax cut for some middle-class Canadians

11/23/16

Financial Post

A Senate committee has amended the Trudeau government's signature tax bill to cut taxes even more for some middle-income earners.

Canadians' Quality Of Life Not Keeping Up With Economic Growth: Study

11/23/16

Huffington Post Canada

A growing economy is supposed to raise people's standards of living, but a new study suggests this effect is breaking down in Canada.

Espanola greenhouse builder becomes farmer to prove technology

11/18/16

Northern Ontario Business

Greenhouses Canada is pushing the envelope for indoor growing in Northern Ontario.

Cambrian once again among Canada's top 50 research colleges

11/18/16

Northern Ontario Business

The only Northern Ontario College to make list, Cambrian sunk 10 spots in most recent ranking

Canada Desperately Needs Education Innovation

11/18/23

Huffington Post Canada

In the past 40 years what we've taught our middle and high-school students has remained relatively the same and hasn't been keeping pace with the evolving and modernizing job market.

Copyright © 2013 Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this weekly mailing because you were interested in weekly news updates regarding labour market information posted in the news.

Our mailing address is:

Algoma Workforce Investment Corporation
672 Queen Street East
Sault Ste. Marie ON P6A 2A4